

Bury St Edmunds Christmas Fayre Mailing List

Privacy

What information do you collect about me?

When you sign up to join our mailing list, we will ask for your contact details so we can keep you updated in regards to the details of the fayre – this is a legitimate interest.

How do you process the information that you collect?

Personal information will be processed in accordance with the councils' data protection, information security and records retention policies and will only be used by us for the process of informing you about opportunities in regards to the fayre.

For more details and our privacy statement in full please click on 'How we use your information' below.